LAST NIGHT an Indian watchman in the employ of the Aberdeen Dock authorities got into "scrap" with the Chinese crew, of the coasting steamer Pekin, Captain Matthews, and was so badly jumped upon by them and battered with his own walking-stick that he looked more like Slavin after his encounter with Jackson than anything else when the police came along with a stretcher and carted him off to hospital. CORRESPONDENT, residing in the genteel neighbourhood of Francis Street, informs us that a snake measuring nearly six feet in length was caught in the Naval Yard a day or two ago. The reptile: was :discovered by a constable comfortably colled up near the flag staff, and he immediately called to his assistance a smart young Marine belonging to H.M.S. Victor Emanuel who was on police duty and keeping his weather eye right on the Chinese deposit bank opposite the Commissariat jetty, which by the way can boast of more depositors daily than all the banking establishments in Hongkong put together. The snake at first seemed (continues our correspondent) to regard the Marine with as much indifference and scorn as the people of Chatham are known to treat the Royal Marines, but a boat hook having been procured put a different aspect to the affair, and after a severe encounter the snake gave up the mature consideration this proposal was knocked on the head, as it was thought that if nothing but dead snakes could be sent for exhibition it would be showing up this busted colony a little too n stewed eel stall in Petticost Lane, was sent as

TWO MEN BUTCHER D IN COLD BLOOD, A BRITISH GUNBOAT ORDERED TO THE PROMT

For some time past the relations between the people and the Customs and likin officials at Fatshan have been seriously strained owing to A new departure, and a very popular one, the illegal, vexations and unbearable exactions was Dr. Ferguson's Highland fling. It was not of the authorities. It was expected some time ago could be prevailed on to do a hand's-turn of who have been there say "ble guns and forts work. That was about noon. Later in please," And, barring a little navvying big guns and their assistants, accompanied by a gang of [ Hongkong, the most useful. coolles, repaired to the likin office to interview the "Blackmailer-in-Chief," and as might be expected a row and free-fight ensued between the aggress i's minions and the aggrieved parties. For a while the fight was kept up with great spirit by both sides and it was not long before it became apparent that unicas extreme measures were resorted to the Hein effice would be in the hands of the now furtous mob. The order was therefore given to the runners to fire, and fire they dld, killing two shopkerpers and seriously, wounding three others. After this the mob choled down, but were, nevertheless, fully determined to carry on the struggle for fairplay. They therefore convened a meeting of headmen, who drew up a long petition to his Excellency the Vicercy in which the conduct of the Namboi and Fatshan mandarins and the Hille magnates was severely criticised. " In olden times the people would have waited peacefully, for the reply of the ta-fee, but times have thenged and so have the people of China, who no longer regard their officials as so many gods : so they didn't quieted down in the usual way but were known to the authorities to be planning to attack, loot and butches the immates of all the yamens in the district by the aid of levies from Namboi and the city (Canton) proper. This course was determined on owing to the murder of the two above mentioned citizens and the failure of the Viceroy to grant with sufficient promptness the prayer of his humble perimoners.

. THE "TWEED" UNDER ORDERS. Yesterday the strike was kept up and the situation looked very grave up to noon, when the British Acting Consul-General at Canton communicated with the Hongkong Government and obtained a promise that the Tweed would be sent up to Canton at day-break to-day. Orders were soon received at the Naval Yard to prepare the Tweed, then lying off the bathhouse, for sea and in the space of an hour or so she was ready for businers, while the stokers below were firing up for all they were worth. At sundown the Commander of the Tweed received orders to start for Canton at A o'clock this morning, but during the night, owing to more fivourable news coming to hand from the British Consul at Canton, the departure of the Trueed was countermanded, and she is now "an you was " in the harbour, though prepared, we understand, to leave (for any part of the whole world) at a moment's notice and to give an excellest account of hers-lf.

Latest news is to the effect that Fatshan is crowded with Imperial troops and that the Viceroy has been prevailed on by the Consular Budy resident at the Shameen' to adopt a concilintery tone in his heply to the Fatshan pedition. It is, therefore, reasonable to conclude that the strike is fairly over, that the unscrupulous officials concerned will have to ante-up to the Viceroy's underlings a good deal of their illgoites gains and that our own dear old Tweed will be allowed to lay off in Hongkong for a few more years, possibly until the millennium.

MACAO.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.) MACAO, June 23rd.

To the surprise and disgust of the inhabitants of the Holy City, a circular was issued this mersing proclaiming that by order of the Clerical Authorities the great annual procession and feast of St. John the Baptist, patron of Macao, is after all the disturbance raised on the subject, to take place this afternoon | Risum teneatis!

The deremony is an essentially popular one, got up solely by the people through their legal representatives the Leal Senado, asa spontaneous expression of gratitude for the glorious victory over the Dutch. If ever anything in Macao belonged solely to the Pollot, it was this festival which has attained such dimensions as to be almost what the whole Colony lives for, to look | cuatedy, foresid to and work year after year with one grand demonstration in view. For some reason, as told you, the Rishop a few years ago undertook the expense of the feast; and now he has, on that ground, usurped the sovereign right of the people to control its own voluntary manifestation of gratitude. He has postponed the feast until after the proper day, and now a hurry-scurry hasty scramble of a festival is to be held. presumably at the expense of this hierarchical denied. autorat. ### GREAT TRUTHS.

Great truths are very simple truths when finally they are comprehended; but it takes a long while to prepare any mind to comprehend a great truth. For years one may grope in darkness concerning some phase of his spiritual life, or some perplexities of a sacred friendship, or some seeming contradictions in his innormost personal character; when suddenly a light will break in upon the mind, or upon the heart, which instantly makes clear that which before seemed hopelessly dark. A great truth is then perceived in its bearings upon, and so in-its explanations of, all that was bewildering and disheartening to one who was in ignorance of that truth. What a new sense of life and hope comes with such a new recognition of a comforting. or of an enlightening great truth! In the joy of an experience like this, one can wait and trust in other, perplexities which may yet be similarly resolved and dissipated. .. Thus it is that on the introduction of Clements Tenic everybody was sceptical of its merits; yet now so popular has it become, and so reliable has it proved itself, that hundreds of bogus medicines wro placed on the market with which to guil the public. Every genuine article is always imitated, and people will always try to impose on the credulity of their suffering fellow men. Patients must be on their guard against these swindlers, for their remedies are perfectly usaless, and while time is being wasted, the disease increases, and perhaps even beyond the power of so potent a remedy as Clements Tonic. Mrs. Brand, of 33 Australia-street, Newtown, Sydney, writes : "I think it my duty to write in grateful acknowledgement of the great benefit my mother has derived by the use of Clements Tonic. . My mother was seriously ill from inability to est and general debility; and in fact her condition caused us great anxiety; we had a great-repugnance to using patent medicines, but the numerous cures we heard had been effected by Clements Tonic, and which was corroborated by our personal friends, induced my mother to try one bottle. The effect of this one bottle was marvellous; her appetite has returned, and her health wonderfully improved. We never thought it possible that so great an improvement could have been effected in so short a time. You may make what use of this you like, as we are sure there must be many sufferers who, like my mother, would derive immense benefit by the use of Clements Tonic. I.am, yours gratefully, Evelyn Brand." Care must be taken that the genuine "Clements" Tonic is obtained, as the use of imitations must lead to disappointment and
